TO CALIFORNIA WINE

2007 CABERNET SAUVIGNON ESTATE 90 POINTS, ONE PUFF

“A bit on the berryish side for a Napa Valley Cabernet, but bright and fruity in the bargain, rich and beginning to show layers of complexity, the wine may not quite carry the drama found in Signorello’s Padrone bottling but does a pretty fair job of being deep and attractive in its own right. It is full on the palate, tannic yet nicely fruity and is likely to live for a decade or more.”
